

New York Stock Market

New York, June 6.—Prices of stocks broke violently to new low levels for the year in the late session of the Stock Exchange to-day, after nervous and feverish fluctuations up and down for most of the session.

At one time the level had been lifted 1 to 2 points over the closing prices of Saturday quite generally. London had not yet arrived in the morning, and it has been the case at most periods of recent violent decline, and speculative sentiment took on quite cheerful hue.

The excessive dullness into which trading fell at the advance arrested an unwillingness on the part of buyers to follow the rise, and indicated a weak undertone, but it was hoped that the hesitation was due simply to a desire to await the outcome of the White House conference.

At a price, to which interest must be added. Income bonds and certificates of indebtedness are flat.

COTTON MARKETS. New York, June 6.—There was a sectional advance in the old crop months to-day as a result of urgent covering, while there appeared to be few sellers outside of the big bull traders.

Receipts at the ports to-day were 2,683 bales against 4,893 last week and 3,750 last week. For the week 25,000 bales against 26,463 last week and 31,333 last week.
